

Let Your Blessing's Rain Down
(Streams From Heaven)

11/8/2000

Like a river flowing from the streams of heaven, so your love flows
Living water flowing from the streams of heaven, let your love flow
Rain coming down forming streams from heaven, so your love goes
Let it rain, let it rain, let it rain, let it rain down streams from heaven, so that all know

Your goodness, your kindness, your mercy, your grace
Let it rain down from heaven all over my face
Let it cleanse me, the water that is living and true
Let it rain down from heaven, the water that's you

Like the oceans that break forth by streams from heaven, so your love flows
Like the mountains that capture the clouds and ring them out, let your love flow
Drops big and small and far too numerous to count, so your love goes
And it rains, and it rains, and it rains, and it rains down streams from heaven, so that all know

Your blessings that flow forth to Yours' with no end
I am one of them Lord for you call me your friend
Let the waters of righteousness wash me to You
Let them sweep me away, let them teach me of You

Let Your blessings rain down

It is you who I desire, it is you who caused the fire
To burn deep within my heart Lord, please help me to return from where I started

For you Lord, my heart is yearning and to you I'm returning
For there's none who satisfies like you Lord, please give me grace and open up my eyes

My first love, I thirst love for you, Lord
Please let me drink of you
My first love, one true love is You, Lord
I'll always think of you

It is you who draws me to you, there is nothing I can do
To resist your kind of love, I don't want to even if I could it's you I want to love

No one else can cause this heart beat, all my fears are in full retreat
'cause there's no one else like you, tell me who can top you Lord, there's none cause you are you

My first love, unrehearsed love
It's new Lord every single day
My first love, my hearts bursts love for you, Lord
In every single way

You're the one my heart desires and I love to praise You
You have set me heart on fire, Your grace makes it blaze true
I love You, You first loved me, signed and sealed with first blood
You are my priority, Lord, You are my first love

Pour Your Grace On Me

10/27/01

Just a trace of your grace is sufficient to heal me
Just a word from your mouth is enough to calm the sea's
Just a wave of your hand is enough to move the heavens
Oh Lord, pour your grace on me, oh Lord, pour your grace on me

Just a look from you Lord and I'm moved by compassion
Just a glance from you Lord is enough to make me see
Just a thought from you Lord and I know what you are thinking
Oh Lord, pour your grace on me, oh Lord, pour your grace on me

Not so much that I would like to keep it for myself
But so other's then can know you as I do
Lord, that in my life you would be wholly glorified
And that all the world would know the grace that is you
And that all the world would know the grace that is you

Just the sound of your voice brings about my elation
And the words from your mouth, Lord, are my ecstasy
Just a whisper from you shouts of our love relationship
Oh Lord, pour your grace on me, oh Lord, pour your grace on me

Just a gentle caress from your spirit will move me
Just a touch from you, Lord, brings forth my jubilee
And embracing you, Lord, fills my soul and my spirit
Oh Lord, pour your grace on me, oh Lord, pour your grace on me

I cannot contain your love, so let it overflow
Into everything I say and all I do
By the blood of Christ, your saving grace fully applied
So that all the world may know the grace that is You
So that all the world may know the grace that is You

Lord, I love to worship You

It's the thing I love to do

Lord, I love to worship You all the time

Lord, I love to praise Your name

And Your mercies I'll proclaim

Lord, I love to praise Your name all the time

You are my joy, You are my peace

You are the One I want to please

I want to serve You all of the days of my life

You are the One that I will bless

And with my mouth I will confess

And sing Your praises all of the days of my life

(Chorus)

You are my Christ, You are my King

With all my heart and soul I sing

Lord of Your goodness, surely there's no one like You

You are God, the Great I Am

You're Judah's lion and yet the Lamb

Of God who's worthy of all of the praise in my life

I love Jesus, 'cause He first loved me
I love Jesus, He's my destiny
I love Jesus, He's my Savior and I love Jesus, He is my best friend
And I am going to praise Him everyday

I love Jesus, 'cause He set me free
I love Jesus, supreme Deity
I love Jesus, holy, righteous One and I love Jesus, holy, righteous Son of God
I'm going to praise Him everyday

My soul rejoices, just in hearing His name
My heart beats louder when I hear it proclaimed
My mind starts racing like a run-a-way train
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus

My mouth sings praises to the king of all kings
My spirit soars, as I am on eagles wings
My life before Him, He's the Lord of all things
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus

I love the Lord with all my heart and soul
To serve Him always is my ultimate goal
There's nothing greater in this world than to know
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus

I live for Jesus, He's my savior and friend
I look to Jesus, my beginning and end
My faith's in Jesus, I cannot be shaken
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus

I'm just calling you to say how much I love you, how much I love you
I can see no other way but now to praise You, I have to praise You
I love to spend my time with You
I'm fully satisfied in You
There's nothing I would rather do
Then to talk, my Lord, to You

How ya doin' Big Daddy, How ya doin' my Father
I just called to hear Your voice
Cause You've given me a choice
To love or not to love and I choose love / I choose love

I'm just calling You to say I'm truly grateful, I'm truly grateful
For You sending me The Way
To have life with You my life is in You
Through Jesus we've been reconciled
It makes me have a big ole smile
To know that I can come to You, my Abba Father, God
You never stop amazing me
Abundant love You have for me
So, Father, God I come to You
To give You all my love

The things of this world are fading quickly, but Your Word forever remains Though life on this earth's a breath, a vapor, Your goodness and kindness stays the same
My heart delights in You, oh Lord, my heart delights in You
My heart delights in You, oh Lord, my heart delights in You

Whatever once was has passed, has ended, but Your love forever will be Whatever is now has little meaning compared to what You have planned for me
My heart delights in You, oh Lord, my heart delights in You
My heart delights in You, oh Lord, my heart delights in You

Meaningless cries my heart so burdened, there's little of value here for me
For nothing compares to Your great splendor and Jesus, Your awesome majesty
My heart delights in You, oh Lord, my heart delights in You

There is no other one who has done what You have done
No one can compare my Lord to You
And who can stand before You, Awesome, Holy, Mighty Lord
Only those who's hearts delight in You

My heart delights in You, oh Lord, my heart delights in You
My heart delights in You, oh Lord, my heart delights in You

Forever, You Knew Me

2/18/2002

You knew me, oh Lord
You knew me, oh Lord
Before I ever came to be, You knew me

And not one day will come to pass that is not ordained by You
Not one moment will I pass through without Your Love
And at no time could I exist, if you hadn't caused me to be
You're my life, my love and forever, You knew me

Speak to me, oh Lord
Speak to me, oh Lord
Tell me what You would like me to be, speak to me

Just as You spoke and I became, tell me what I will become
For I know where I have come from, I've come from You
And though my destiny is secure, it's still a mystery to me
So my life, my love, my forever, speak to me

Renew me, oh Lord
Renew me, oh Lord
Bring to life what has died in me, renew me

For whatever life that I had has been crucified with You
I'm submitted and filtered through Your precious Blood
And since forever I've died to me, I am found alive in You
You're my life, my love, my forever, renew me

Live through me, oh Lord
Live through me, oh Lord
To You honor, power, glory, live through me

Your love is greater than my greatest sin
Your love is stronger than spirit, soul, skin
Your love has power and it always wins
Your love, Your love is greater, Lord
Your love, Your love is greater, Lord

Your love is deeper than my deepest fault
Your love is higher than all other calls
Your love is so wide, it makes the heavens look small
Your love, Your love is greater, Lord
Your love, Your love is greater, Lord

Your love is beyond what I can understand
Beyond comprehension, is Your master plan
So all I can say is my heart is in your hands
'Cause your love, your love is greater, Lord

Your love moves mountains and calms raging seas
Your love's a whirlwind and a soft gentle breeze
Your love will lift me, then bring me to my knees
Your love, Your love is greater, Lord
Your love, Your love is greater, Lord

Nothing in this world can stop it, nothing we can do can top it
Only you give true agape love

Your love brings forth worship from all who know you
All praise, glory, honor, for all that you do
So Lord I surrender to this one amazing truth
Your love, Your love is greater, Lord
Your love, Your love is greater, Lord

Your love is greater than my greatest song
Your love is greater than all I do wrong
Your love will keep me moving right along
Your love, Your love is greater, Lord
Your love, Your love is greater, Lord

I've searched my whole life looking for love
Wanting nothing more than to be loved
There's no greater hurt of the heart than not to have love
But it has a way of finding us out when we seek love

But the greatest love that I've found
I have found in You
Lord, there never was or could there be
I'll live my whole life through
Anyone else who loves like You
Anyone else who does what You do to me
There's nobody else who loves me quite like You

I've dreamed my whole life of finding true love
Desperately hoping to find unfailing love
Deep in my heart I knew there would be pure, perfect love
Love beyond humanity
God's perfect love

I'd search forever trying to find whether or not it could be Found in another friend or a lover or even in me
Aimlessly wandering foolishly pondering something so clear
Found in one person, Jesus Christ is that person drawing me near
